NEWPORT.

BY CRANSTON & NORMAN,
127 THAMES STREET.

SATURDAY MORNING, AUG. 17, 1850.

63-In order to accommodate all who are desirous of witnessing Whipple's Dissolving Views, at the Ocean House Hall, the proprietor has reduced the price of admission, for this evening, to twenty-five cents. This will enable all to see the Views and we trust that the opportunity will be improved, as our people may not have a chance again, very soon, to see these works of Science.

63-Mr. Wallace's Concert at the Saloon of the Ocean House, Thursday evening, was attended by a large and delighted audience. Mr. Wallace performed on the Piano Forte in a masterly manner, as did also Melsell, Stroop, and the performers of both were loudly applauded. Madame Bushell sang in her best style, and was repeatedly encorad.

63>We recommend the hot and cold salt water Baths of Judge Trott, on the Long wharf, to the patronage of the public. There is nothing more conducive to health than frequent bathing, particularly at this season of the year, and in warm salt water. Give them a trial.

63-There will be another Rifle Shooting Match, at the candle, this evening, at Hoadon's Pavilion Rifle Gallery. It will be a fine time for sportsmen to enjoy themselves, and try their skill with the rifle.

63-It is expected that the Rt. Rev. Bishop of Eastburn, will preach in Zion Church, to-morrow morning.

Mr. EDITOR:-

Will you allow me to make a suggestion through your columns to the Germania Company?

Quite a number of their patrons would be delighted to hear a larger proportion of those solemn German chorals, at their sacred concerts. I am aware that they do not require so severe a discipline or so much preparation as the other classes of music, still the effect of the choral music is most happy. Will they in this respect gratify SEVERAL HEARERS.

63-Do not fail to go to the Howard and the Foxes this evening, they have a FIRST RATE bill to-night, for the benefit of Mrs. G. Howard, it is the last time they perform in Newport at present.

HOOTED SHIRTS.—We learn from Newcastle, Delaware, that a new steamboat, named after the town, has just been built there, by Thomas Robinson, on the hooped plan, invented by his father. She is one hundred and twenty feet in length, is built for a company, and intended for California, whether she will be carried on board ship, in pieces, like her engine, which is about being completed at the works of the Newcastle Manufacturing Company. The Newcastle is, we understand, entirely secured, according to the plan of construction, by iron loops, no timbers being used in her.

JENNY LIND.—M. Benedict writes from Schlangenbad, that Jenny Lind's voice "has acquired, if that were possible, even additional power and effect by a timely and well chosen repose." She wants to sing a song of "Welcome to America," at her first concert, and M. Benedict asks for the poetry from one of our "first rate literary men," which he will set to music. Barnum accordingly offers a prize of one hundred dollars for the best song of that description. The compositions are to be sent to him at New York before the 1st of September. Now for excitement among our lyric poets, from General Morris down or up, which is it?

63-There is a regulation in the English Post Office Department that would be a valuable one to engrave upon our system of postal arrangements. If a letter has the name of the writer on the seal or on the outside, and does not reach its destination, instead of being sent to the "dead letter" department, it is returned to the party writing it. It has been likewise proposed, in this country, that the law should allow any Postmaster, after a letter has not been called for, say six months, to open such letter and send it back enclosed to the writer.

63-The earring which is to be used at the coronation of the Emperor of Austria, says a letter from Vienna, was made in the reign of Charles for the marriage of his daughter, Maria Theresa. Since that time it has been used for the coronation of the Emperors. The gilding alone cost 18,000 florins. The painting on the doore are by Rubens, and cost 60,000 florins.

63-To commit murder quietly, is to take a young lady and tell her she has a very pretty foot. She will then wear a small thin shoe—go out in the wet—catch cold—and a cold will bring on a fever, and she will die in a month.

63-The steamer Niagara is in, but she brings no news of importance.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15th.

SENATE.—Mr. Mason moved that the Fugitive Slave Bill be taken up and made the order of the day for Monday, and daily until disposed of, which was carried.

The protest discussion was then resumed.

Mr. Hunter said another paragraph had been added by the unanimous consent of the signers. He read it. It adds the partial surrender of the public domain as another reason against California.

Mr. Balmer reviewed the subjects of protest historically, and showed how it was regarded by the founders of the Constitution, and argued strongly against entering it on the journal.

Mr. Walker quoted from the protest to show that it imputed improper motives to Senators.

Mr. Hunter defended the protest against Mr. Walker's objections, and advocated entering it on the ground of expediency.

Mr. Denon in a powerful argument against the protest, presented a history of British practice.

Mr. Butler then rose to reply. He thought that Senators were overdoing the matter by such a prolonged discussion.

His remarks called up Mr. Houston, who denied all cognizance or knowledge even of the plot for the formation of a southern confederacy, narrated in the Washington correspondence of the Philadelphia Inquirer. Had he known it he should have disclosed it promptly.

Mr. Coss offered a few remarks in favor of admitting the protest.

Mr. Pratt spoke against it.

Mr. Hunter replied to Pratt.

Mr. Jefferson Davis alluded to the distinguished notice taken of the protest, as to the means of drawing the attention of the whole country to the subject.

After further discussion from Messrs. Downs, Whitcomb and Turney, on motion of Mr. Norris, the question of reception was laid on the table, 22 to 19.

The New Mexico bill was then read a third time and passed, 27 to 10.

Adjourned till Monday.

House.—The House went into committee on the civil and diplomatic bill.

Mr. Due proceeded to answer the theories of Seddon and others; showed up the absolute sovereignty of the claims set up for Texas; severely ridiculed the abstractions of Seddon, by whom explanations were frequently made. He ably defended the measure, and created a great deal of interest.

Mr. Melone next spoke, and took strong grounds against the measure. He elaborately argued the boundary question, and defended the claim of Texas.

Mr. Venable followed in a warm anti-slavery speech.

Mr. Ashe succeeded, on the same side, when a recess was taken till 7 o'clock.

63-It is confidently asserted that the Senate's California and Texas boundary bill, in quiet succession, leap from a precipice ~~seventy feet high~~, into the foaming torrent below. Think of this, ye bold lady bathers at Newport.

63-Mrs. Swisshelm says it is marvelously strange how a woman can think herself contaminated by the slightest intercourse with the victim of a seducer, but cover her face all over with smiles to receive the seducer himself. Mrs. Swisshelm talks like a woman of good sense.

63-The New Haven Courier says only one lady has refused to give her age to the U. S. Marshal who is taking the census.—So he reported her as being fifty, and a little grey with it.

KIDD'S TREASURE.—A mesmorizer in Boston has sent five poor deluded dunces on a wild-goose chase to Jay Island, to hunt up Capt. Kidd's buried treasure.

63-PENALTY UNDER THE CENSUS LAW.

By the 15th section of the new Census Act, it is provided that any person who shall refuse to answer, and give the necessary information when required by the assistants, shall be subjected to a fine of thirty dollars.

63-Dobbins says the more labels that are written in a country, the more deeply are the community endowed with liberty.

To live in a land where newspapers don't blackguard people, is to live in a country where tyranny takes the place of constitutions. In Austria, newspapers never utter an unpleasant remark from year end to year end. In New York, however, there are always a half dozen editors under indictment for nothing else.

63-The Springfield Republican, speaking of the case of Wakefield, the abattoir in Boston, indicted for manslaughter, remarks,—"Apothecaries, while being strictly accountable for their own sins, have saved the reputations of more physicians than ever won sound ones, without making fatal blunders, known only to themselves.

We once were in the company of a physician who issued a prescription for a dose of twenty grains of quinino. A few minutes after the apothecary's boy came in with the paper, to ask the Doctor if he had not made a mistake. He had written Morphine instead of the substance he intended.

The apothecary had saved the doctor's reputation and the patient's life."

63-The steamer Niagara is in, but she brings no news of importance.

THE REMARKABLE SANATIVE POWERS OF DR. S. P. TOWNSEND'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA.

Have induced numerous attempts to counterfeit it, and make fraudulent use of Dr. Townsend's NAME to secure the sale of spurious ARTICLES.

These counterfeited imitations only prove the value of the ORIGINAL; and no honest complaint could be paid to Dr. S. P. Townsend's Extract of Sarsaparilla, than the imitations efforts that have been made by many to get up SOMETHING like it. As to the most recent ATTEMPTS that have been made to use Dr. Townsend's NAME to create confusion in the public mind in reference to the GENUINE ARTICLE, we publish below.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The publishers hereby certify that the preparation

COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA is now manufactured under my direction and supervision, from the original recipe obtained from

Dr. S. P. Townsend; and I certify that it is composed of ingredients PURE, FAIR, and WITHOUT MERCHANDISE, and that the ingredients are all properly compounded, so as to obtain from them their greatest medicinal effect.

JAMES R. CHILTON, M.D.,

Candid.

Dr. Chilton's name is surely that the elements of this Extract are combined in the most correct and scientific manner, and that it is adapted to the wants of the invalid, with the highest professional ability.

THIS WE HOPE WILL BE SUFFICIENT

GUARANTEE to the public, and in those purchasing Dr. S. P. Townsend's Compound

Extract of Sarsaparilla. Such may have no fear of getting one of the amorous and BANE-

RUL MIXTURES which fill the channels of trade, and are concocted without any knowledge either of the nature of remedial agents or of the wants of the human system when laboring under disease.

A COUNTRY SEAT ON RHODE ISLAND

FOR SALE.

The well-known residence of the late George

Isham, Esq., containing 61 acres, with barn and other buildings, situated one and a half miles from the coast of New England, in a beautiful setting. There is an orchard of 12 acres of choice fruit trees in good order.

The farm is well cleared with stone walls, has a brook running through it. The situation is one of the best on the Island, in a high ground, and the Ocean and Bay can be seen from the lower windows. There is sufficient room on the road to accommodate G. I. horses, and have sufficient room for a stable. It will be sold in such portions as purchaser may wish.

ALSO,

The Farm east of the above now occupied by

J. Smith, containing 103 acres, well walled, with a good house, out building, and a young orchard in bearing condition, and well watered.

Orchard, 1000 feet above the sea, and has a deficiency of power or Natural Energy in the hills

other parts of the Island.
